Director's Corner

Children's House is ready to welcome the peace and Joy the Christmas season brings. Together we will celebrate the birth of Jesus and explore the Christmas story. The preschool program will be attending a very special Christmas chapel. As we learn the true meaning of the season, we will also practice and share its meaning of love, joy, peace and kindness. To kick off the season, the first week we will be decking our hallways and transforming them into a festival of trees. Classrooms will create beautiful and festive trees for display. Classroom doors will also be decorated with a little help from our families. Information will go out November 30th.

Random Act of Kindness week will begin the second week of December. A letter with more information will be sent out December 3rd. Together, each day we will participate in an act of kindness

Monday- Donate - Collecting items for the Graham Micro-pantry.

Tuesday- Giving thanks- Creating care packages, and card of thankfulness and encouragement to the Memorial ICU nursing team.

Wednesday- Make a joyful noise- share a Christmas song and dance

Thursday- Give- Sharing words of encouragement with families, staff and our community.

Friday- Treat- Leave a letter and care package for our postal carrier.

Baby Bunnies

From Army crawling to taking some steps, these babies are on the move! Julian is taking steps independently and is on his way to walking. Drew is letting go of the toy shelf so she can stand independently and loves to dance and wave. Beckham loves bear crawling and waving hi and bye to his friends. Georgia is crawling and loves playing with blocks. Katie is crawling and loves walking along the toy shelf to play with the toys on top. Owen has mastered the Army crawl and loves when his teachers help him practice standing. Even our more stationary friends are meeting some great new milestones. Luka has started rice cereal and some baby food, while Barrett has started using the jumper.

Our December theme is Christmas, so we will be singing many Christmas songs and ringing some Christmas bells, all while discovering the colors red and green. We have many activities planned to help celebrate the sights and sounds of Christmas!

A very happy bunny birthday to Drew, Beckham and Georgia this month!

Busy Bees

We are looking forward to turning our room into a learning-filled Christmas workshop! A busy, buzzing room! Our theme for December will be: A Homemade Holiday, where we will focus our regular curriculum through the experience of creating beauty for this season. Also, we will center our socialization skills around “giving” and “sharing”.

Week 1: Gifts and Giving

Week 2: Decorating the Tree

Week 3: Hang up the Stockings

Week 4: The Holidays are Here!

We will make printed wrapping paper, experience smells of cinnamon, pine, peppermint, make keepsakes, learn new songs to dance and sing with, and decorate our room to a RIDICULOUS degree! (photos to come).

Blessed Holidays

Sunshines

The Christmas season is upon us! We are planning for a wonderful month in the Sunshine room.

As a countdown to Christmas, Ms. Wendy will be sharing the advent calendar she used with her own children when they were small. Each day, we will read a little book that contains a small portion of the story of Jesus' birth. We will then hang the book on a tree. When the last book has been read, and the calendar is empty, the children will know it time for Christmas!

We will be reading books about Christmas and doing a wide variety of arts and crafts. As usual, if your child wishes to share any books or music, please feel free to send them in.

We hop you all have a safe and wonderful holiday season!

If you plan to order, please let Ann or Mason in the church office know by noon on Tuesday by calling (523-3639 or email ann@CBCchurchfamily.org)

How to Talk About: The Christmas List

Christmas season seems to start earlier each year, and with it comes the children's Christmas lists. The lists can be lengthy and expensive. Talking to children about their expectations can make Christmas a little less stressful. Start with discussing the difference between needs and wants. Also, it helps to talk to them about gratitude and how fortunate they are. This article lists some questions that help children put gratitude in perspective. It also helps to put some boundaries on what can be spent this year. Have an age appropriate discussion about how much money is available this year. The author gives her children four presents each: something you want, something you need, something to wear, and something to read.

Four Ways Parents Can Balance Couple Time and Family Time

Many couples tend to put their relationship "on the back burner" once they have children. However, the role as a couple is important, as it is the foundation of your family. In this article ways to balance the time are suggested:

1. Schedule alone time with your partner
2. Build your connection in small moments
3. Spend quality time as a family
4. Let your kids know that you value your role as a parent and a partner
